THE JEWS OF TIN PAN ALLEY

Come along on a fascinating journey back in time; as we take a ride with Lil Rev down the sidewalks of New York where Tin Pan Alley was born. Meet the Jewish publishers, peddlers, pluggers, performers, composers, and comedians who helped create an industry of song, dance, and story. From the Shô!l! to the tenements and street corners to the silver screen, this is our contribution to America . . . here we shine brilliantly!
